

Bishop Committee Reports

February 2017

VICAR'S REPORT – Bill Fulton

Welcome new members

Welcome Olivia, Heather, Tovi, and Aina! This is my monthly Vicar's Report that I send out before each Bishop's Committee meeting. In my report I try to communicate the important things I've been doing, important things going on in the parish, and plans for the future.

BC Retreat

I look forward to seeing you this Saturday for our BC retreat. Tentative agenda:

- 9:00 Gather
- 9:30 Team Building
- 10:30 Commissions
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Goal setting
- 2:00 BC Meeting for February
- 3:00 Adjourn

Please note that we will need to elect one of our members to serve as Peoples' Warden, and we'll need to assign the commissions, so please be thinking about how you would like to serve this year.

Our landlord, New Fellowship Church

David Sorrell and I are meeting with the leaders of New Fellowship Church tonight to discuss several issues including the question of extending our time in our building after our rental agreement runs out in June. Possibly they'll ask for new lease terms. We'll also discuss how we can share our church calendars to eliminate overlapping events.

Godly Play workshop

On February 4, Mary Zabinski and I attended a workshop at St. Thomas, Medina, on the Godly Play program. Godly Play is a way to help children grow spiritually through Biblical storytelling, play, and art. A discernment group led by Sarah Rogers studied the Godly Play program and decided it would be a good choice for us to implement this fall. Before then, we'll need to have teachers trained and materials bought. I'll have more on this later.

Diocese joins lawsuit

I sent out an email to the parish informing them of the lawsuit the Diocese has joined against the federal government's ban on refugees and immigrants and invited people to a discussion at the Wednesday program on February 15. I hope this will be a healthy way for us to deal with this issue.

Tense Political Climate

We seem to be living in a very tense political climate where people are highly sensitive to political language. Bp. Greg sent out an invitation to clergy to meet for a discussion on how to survive as a clergy person in these contentious times. I try not to be political in the pulpit and other one-way venues, but I hope you can appreciate how difficult it is now for clergy to speak the truth while keeping the peace.

Lynda Loveday, rest in peace

I was present with Lynda in the afternoon before she died later that evening. I'm sad that she is gone but grateful for her life with us at St. Antony's. I officiated at her memorial service on January 28.

Liturgy Workshop for EMs and Readers

On March 18, there will be a workshop for Eucharistic Minister, Readers, and Preachers at Emmanuel, Mercer Island. I plan to go, and two others have indicated they'd like to join me. I think this is an excellent way for us to improve the quality of our worship (not to mention meeting the requirement for continuing education for Ems and readers).

Vacation plans

I'll be on vacation February 21-23 to visit my mother in Colorado, and March 25-31 to visit our son, Chad, and his wife, Brittany, in Washington, D.C. Fr. Dick Scott has agreed to cover in my absence.

BISHOP'S WARDEN - Charles Smith

I am looking forward to the excitement that this year brings. With the permit process well underway we can look forward to digging, pouring a foundation and building new walls for a new sanctuary.

Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Psalm 127:1

The LORD has already built the church. We are the church. We must continue to strive towards the mission God has called us to as the community called St. Antony's. We cannot let the excitement of building take away from the day to day activity of St. Antony's. We must continue to be the church in this place, at this time.

How do we do that? This is the underlying question that the agenda of the Bishop Committee's retreat will seek to address. I am looking forward to the retreat. I hope you are too.

PEOPLE'S WARDEN - Charles Smith

Announcements were made at both services following the annual meeting of the election results. Unfortunately not everyone made it to one of the services on the 29th of January. The question of who was elected continues to be asked. We need to make sure the results are communicated in the newsletter too.

We also need to include articles in the newsletter that reflect the work that will be done at the Bishop Committee retreat. I hope every Bishop's Committee member will help with that.

TREASURER'S REPORT – Jim Foley

More people donated their pledge for the entire year right out of the gate. I adjusted the monthly income budgets accordingly. We are off to a roaring start! See minutes from BC meeting for more details.

A presentation on caregiving will be planned for our congregation within the next 1-2 months. There was also discussion and planning to meet care needs of specific parishioners.

There was a Lay Eucharistic Visitor meeting 30 January to review how this ministry is going. The program has been up and running since September with a rotational schedule. Olivia Stalter may return to this ministry again.

Our soup suppers begin again on 8 March. Suppers will be held on Wednesday evenings following a Eucharist service at 5:30 pm. There will be five suppers held on 8, 15, 22, 29 March and on 5 April.
