Vicar's Voice

Many thoughtful people over the centuries have wondered why the original ending of Mark's Gospel portrays the women fleeing from the empty tomb in mute terror. You would think that, having just heard from an angel that Jesus was raised, they would be joyful at the good news.

But change - even good change for the better - can be difficult to face. The resurrection of Jesus was a wrenching change, and undoubtedly it took time for the women and the disciples to soak it in.

We are facing a big change in a few short weeks. We'll be leaving the building that has been our church home for many years and moving into a building that we don't know yet. What will it be like? Will it feel the same? Will it change us? Will we still feel surrounded by the presence of God and our church family, or will it be strange and uncomfortable?

The experience of coming to church is multi-sensory. When we come into our old familiar space, we're enveloped in sights, sounds and smells that assure us that we're in a safe place, and warm memories rush to meet us. It's not going to be easy to say goodbye.

But we remember that "the church is not a building." The church is the Body of Christ, a spiritual temple built of living stones. The church is the network of relationships that bind us together in Christ. No matter where we are, God is with us.

In Exodus we read how the Israelites wandered in the desert for forty years. And just as God travelled with the Israelites through the desert, God will travel with us the 1.4 miles down Old Frontier Road as we set up our tabernacle in a new place.

Of course there will be adjustments. It will take time for us to feel like the new building is our spiritual home. But I am sure that over time we will come to love our new home just as we have loved our old home. And we know that God will be with us.

Bill

Parish Life

St Antony's volunteer Pastoral Care Team is a great way for our Christian community to care for one another. The Care Team provides calls, visits, meals and transportation assistance. If you are able to assist in any part of this ministry, please contact Beth Rohlfig. Contact the church office if you have a care need.

Pastoral Care Team Meeting: Saturday, April 7 at 11am in the church hall. Please join us if you would like to be a part of this team.

Lay Eucharist Visitors: Visitors are available to provide the Eucharist to parishioners who are unable to attend church. Please contact the church office to request a visit.

Beth Rohlfig, Parish Life Commissioner

The Spring Kairos at Monroe will be April 19-22 and we need your help.

Each Kairos weekend runs on prayer. We have a prayer support team that prays over each speaker before and again after their talk. This team also prays over every prayer request they receive (regardless of whether it comes from a team member or a participant) throughout the weekend. There is also a prayer vigil. These are people outside the prison who select a time to pray for the program, the participants, the institution, and the team. These prayers are offered from wherever they happen to be at the time they selected. Our goal is to cover the entire 4 days in prayer. I hope you will help with a piece of that. The prayer vigil sign-up sheet will be available in the Narthex until Sunday April 15.

Hospitality

Plans are continuing to be made for the June 21st Consecration Service at the new church at 6:30 pm. Printed invitations are being designed to send to our Peninsula Region Episcopal Churches. There will also be extra invitations available if you have someone special you want to invite, although space might be somewhat limited.

NEW....Our "Grand Open House and Arts and Crafts Fair" has been set for SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 2018 from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm at the new church campus. This will be open to the public to attend, and advertised in the local papers. It will be a great time for all of us to use this Open House time to meet and greet the public as they circulate through the church and premise and see our beautiful building. You can all stop by at any time, OR, bring your own picnic lunch and blanket to set up out on the lawns, have cake and coffee in the Narthex, or buy a hot dog and soda at our food bar. This will be a festive Fair time with tables of arts and crafts by our own parishioners and friends, a bake sale in the Event Shelter, strolling musicians, a supervised play area for children, St. A's Time and Talent displays, and a fun day to slow down and enjoy the fruits of God's goodness.

Registration for a table area at the Fair will begin the last week in June. Some ideas for vendors are: paintings, cards, jewelry, knitting, wood working, quilts and fabric arts. No garage sale items. Bring your own table and set up items.

Call Tovi Andrews with your questions and registration. 360-779-2610

Transition Committee

With the month of April St. Antony of Egypt nears the completion of construction of our new facility on the property near Trigger Gate. Next month we will be moving. Since all our current contents may not be needed, the Transition Committee asks that any group or organization (i.e. Altar Guild, Sunday School, Choir, etc.) to generate a list of items to take and items to discard or recycle. Each individual and organization needs to assist the process of moving. How many boxes will be needed, who will facilitate packing, does the group need to haul things away for disposal? As this month progresses, we need to be ready for each step needed for an efficient and effective move.

This is an exciting time for St. A's. Moving can be stressful, but with planning and preparation we will be ready and able to make it fun and joyful.

Thank you.
Peter Stockwell
Chair of the Transition Committee

KIDS, LETS HUNT FOR SOME EASTER EGGS

TIME : 10:15

WHERE: New Fellowship church & saint Antony Church yard.

BE PREPARED FOR: Having an Easter egg basket and be ready for great smiles so... bring your camera.

WHO: New Fellowship Church & Saint Antony Kids.

From the Altar/Flower Guild

We are thankful and excited about the wonderful sign-ups for Easter flowers. You have been very generous. It helps us a great deal with the purchase of flowers as well as anything we need for the Altar.

We are very much looking forward to our move into our new church building. Once we are there we will need to buy new linens and other items for our big new Altar. Eventually, we will probably be replacing flower containers when needed, and so on. So here is an extra big thank you to all of you!

A Bishop's Warden's Fancy

In February at the annual retreat, the Bishop's Committee was presented with a case study of the process to discern a new Sunday School program, which resulted in the very successful Godly Play Program. Here I would like to give something of an overview of how St. Antony's came around to deciding on chairs for the new church. The Design Committee had been working in conjunction with the architect for years to design the interior spaces of the new church. While chairs are an obvious necessity, it was unclear what the plan was for them. Would we be able to afford new chairs? Would we want to repurpose the existing chairs? While we knew that permanent pews would not fit our needs, there were a lot of unanswered questions regarding the specifics of the chairs. We knew the exact location of every dimmer switch, electrical outlet, heating duct and drain spout, but the design of the chairs was put on an indefinite hold. With the year of our move in now upon us, it was time to make a decision if we wanted to be able to sit in our new space.

The Design Committee agreed that red was the obvious color choice; red would match our Gospel book, the hymnals, was a traditional liturgical color, and would add a pop of color to our crisp, clean (and predominately white) sanctuary interior. A few color swatches were presented to the Building Committee, and the bright red color seemed the best match. (Although understand the color was chosen from a one square inch swatch.) John Stockwell took it upon himself to reupholster a chair in the newly picked color and display it in the narthex. And this is when things got interesting...

This is where I think we did an excellent job as a church family. The plan for the chairs was presented to both congregations and Fr. Bill, myself and the entire Bishop's Committee welcomed feedback regarding the color. And boy did we receive feedback! More importantly, we listened and reacted to the feedback we received. We heard that the color was too bright, too orange, just not the right shade of red. So, we brought in some new, larger, swatches to choose from, and again presented them, encouraged and awaited feedback from the entire congregation.

I think this is so very interesting and important, because while the Design Committee was open to all members, it was a select few who participated in the design and contributed to the decisions made regarding the spaces of our church. We were very clear that all design decisions went through the design committee. So, in the end many of the choices for our new space were not discussed with the entire congregation. This process was very different, we heard from many members what their thoughts and feelings were about the chairs. I believe that we were very open and communicative about the fabric choice for the chairs. And in the end the decision to reupholster the chairs in the Claret color, the brighter, less purple, of the two new color options, won out. From the feedback that was collected this was the over all best pick. I think as a congregation with many different voices, we all came together to make the right choice.

With emotions running high surrounding the move in date of our new church, this is a great example of how well we can all work together, listen to one another and value each other's opinions, thus putting them to good use with a final outcome of beautiful new chairs in our beautiful new space. I am glad that in the end we all got to have our input into the design of the new church. I hope that in the future there will be more opportunities to listen and incorporate many voices into one.

Bishop's Warden

Outreach

The Outreach committee met on March 5th to discuss the following:

1. The committee discussed, voted and approved to provide $350.00 to Salvation Army to support the Bremerton detachment
2. I spent time with the CK food bank discussing their needs and program resulting in the following actions: the committee is working with Fr Bill to establish a date for a monthly Ingathering Sunday starting in May. This will give the congregation a means of regularly supporting the food bank. The committee will provide a list via the newsletter of what items the CK food needs. Please find it on the next page of this newsletter.
3. Please take the time to look at the outreach binder in the Narthex it contains a brief description of the Outreach Program and a Committee member list, a list of organizations in the Kitsap county area that you can support with your own time and talent, a section that shows what your committee has done to support the community, and a section that contain forms for you to bring your ideas for the congregation to support community outreach; just fill out the form and place it in the pocket in the note book or give it to a Outreach Committee member.
4. Please become involved we need your ideas and participation! The committee meets the first Monday of the month at 3:30 pm and at 7:00 pm at the Church; the late meeting is to support people who cant attend during the day.

Bremerton Salvation Army overview

The Salvation Army has several programs providing services and support to those in our community who need basic assistance. We have a free meals program, food pantry, clothing bank, and a hygiene center, The hygiene center provides the homeless which provides daily showers and weekly laundry services. Social Services provide utility assistance during the winter, Thanksgiving Food Boxes and Christmas Gifts and Food Boxes for families. The Salvation Army also runs a Winter Homeless Shelter from December to the end of March. The church has a weekly women's group, bible study, and Sunday services

Communications & People's Warden

The buzz is all about the new church building; less than 3 months until completion! The picture below was taken 19 March 2018; it's nice to see the roof trusses and the shape of the building coming together. The interior church drawing is also provided to help orientate. Please visit the St. Antony's website: <http://saintantonys.com/> for a wonderful photo timeline of construction progress.
