Vicar's Voice

I was shocked to discover that this month marks ten years of my ministry as Vicar of St. Antony's. My first Sunday at St. Antony's was May 18, 2018, ten whole years ago. It seems like just yesterday that we backed our U-Haul van up to the porch of our rental house on Mickleberry Road and were met with a crowd of eager parishioners waiting to unload the truck.

A lot has happened in those ten years. I felt at home right away at St. Antony's, a sentiment that many others have echoed when they joined our congregation. When I arrived, my first goal was to get to know the people and learn the ways of this church. I would say that took me several years. It takes time to build trust.

There's something that happens in the life of a priest. After a certain number of years in a congregation, you feel a shift. You're no longer a visitor or an outsider, but you're accepted as the Vicar, the pastor, the spiritual leader. I guess what I'm trying to say is that a level of trust has been established.

I'm very grateful for that trust. It means that I can be free to be myself, and I can be genuine in my relationships, my sermons, and my actions. It means that we have a culture of honesty and warmth that allows us to be at home with each other. It means we can accept each other for who we are, and we can welcome newcomers into our midst.

In the ten years I've been here, I've changed as a person and I've seen St. Antony's change. We've said hello to new members and we've said goodbye to those who have moved on. I hold in my heart those who have died, those whose souls I have commended to God in the burial service. I treasure the long-time members who have been here since I came and I treasure all those who have joined us since I arrived.

It used to be that the length of a pastorate was three to five years, but now pastors tend to stay much longer. At St. Antony's, we've been fortunate to have had two long tenures. Dick Scott was here for thirteen years plus and I plan to be here for a good long time yet. Thank you for giving me a home.

*The mission of St. Antony's is to be a loving and welcoming people who worship God, grow in Christ, and serve others.

Legacy Gifts To St. Antony's for the Future

"People have made at least a start at understanding the meaning of life when they plant shade trees under which they know full well they will never sit"

--Adapted from David Elton Trueblood--

As Christians, we begin and end our lives in faith, and during our lifetime demonstrate our faith as active members of the Christian community through our involvement at St. Antony's. We celebrate, grow, struggle and mourn together. Accordingly, there could be no better place to consider our own mortality and the legacy we would like to leave at the end of our lives. Bequests and other planned gifts enable us to continue our stewardship commitment within our faith community of St. Antony's. Names of those who have already given or remembered St. Antony in their will are listed on our Legacy Society plaque which will be placed in the new building.

We are thankful that recently Ken Stephens and Loretta McGinley have remembered St. Antony in their wills. They are now members of St. Antony's Legacy Society and they concurrently will become members of The Bishop's Society.

A Bishop's Warden's Fancy

This month the members of the Bishops Committee were tasked with compiling 2018 goals for their designated commissions. You should be hearing about them throughout this month's newsletter. I have always believed that you can't reach your goals if you don't set any... There is a lot to accomplish this year, and I am awaiting the day we can take a moment to sit back and revel in our all our achievements.

With the Bishop's Committee members putting pen to paper, I thought I might ask all of you to create a goal for yourself this year as well. Will you be more present in prayer? Find peace with a loved one? Try a new worship service? Add a new volunteer opportunity? Step out of your comfort zone to make a new friend? Add bible study to your week? What ever you choose, inward or outward, I encourage you to write it down. At the end of the year you will have reason to feel accomplished in your task, and perhaps we will all be better for it.

Sarah Rogers,
Bishop's Warden

Kairos - God's Special Time

It is finished. We hear those words during Holy Week. Someone might think of those words following a 4-day weekend. I think 'it begins' might be more appropriate. Those of us who have the privilege of working the weekend receive so much spirit. We are also sharing the love of Christ with the participants.

A frequently used metaphor for a Kairos weekend is planting seeds. Just like in the parable, the planter (sower) doesn't get to stand there and see which seeds grow and which ones produce fruit (grain). Rarely would the planter know if it did any good - unless the planter had to perform most of the duties of a farmer. We don't have that charge. Watering the seed is like the programs of the church. Those of us who work a weekend know about a few of the programs of the church inside because the graduates tell us about them. We also know there are a great many offerings of the church inside that we don't hear about (other than a title on their program sign-up form). If the graduates continue to follow the rules, they continue to have the privilege of signing up for programs. One of those is the once a month (first Saturday of the month in Monroe) Kairos grouping. (Please see a Cursillo or a Come and See participant for a definition of "grouping".) Yes, we have an opportunity to water the seed. All of the watering is done by God. Most of it through others (Opening Blind Eyes, Prisoners for Christ, weekly services sponsored by various denominations, programs sponsored by the prison chaplain and run by those inside.)

On occasion we get to see (or hear about) the grain. Usually it is in graduates of weekends long ago becoming those entrusted with a portion of the chaplain's program (read the word, share what this word means to you, lead the music) when we are not present. During the closing of the Kairos weekend, an opportunity is given for those who want, to come up and share what the weekend has meant to them. One announced that he is giving his life to Christ. Usually it takes longer and happens out of our sight. This time we were blessed to see it. God's Special Time.

New Facilities

By now most have heard that the completion date for the new building has been pushed to July 15th. This has caused some adjustments. The Consecration of the new church has been rescheduled to Wednesday, August 22, 2018. A meeting with New Fellowship Church established that we may continue to worship at the present building until our move in July.

With the better weather the construction is moving forward rapidly. The crew has made large progress in the past couple weeks. Trusses are in place and the sheathing is going on the roof. Soon the roofing will be complete. Arrangements for the utilities have been made and the interior work will follow soon. The scheduled completion date of July 15th has been assured by the contractor. These are exciting times for the congregation of St. Antony's and our friends.

The renters in the house have moved to Montana and the house is now vacant. A painting party is planned for May 5th to paint the interior of the house. Many hands make light work so please show up and let's get the house ready for new renters. New carpet and new vinyl are to be placed in mid-May. The house should be available to rent as of June 1st. You will also see an article asking members to sponsor a gallon or 2 or 3 of paint for the house. If we can raise enough it is hoped to paint the outside of the house also.

John Stockwell

Communications & People's Warden

What is the best way to invite community members to visit/join St. Antony's? Please let me know your thoughts. I am working on a communications plan and would love to hear your input (if there's someone who knows about social media I would sure appreciate your help). Please email me at hcarnocki@gmail.com or call at 360-328-8871.

How did you learn of St. Antony's? When Jackie and I moved to Seabeck we looked for Episcopal Churches close to our house, after listening to Father Bill and attending the coffee hour we knew we had found our new family.

Heather Carnocki, People's Warden

Lord's Diner

It is once again time for St. Antony' to serve at the Lord's Diner. The Lord's Diner is located in the basement of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Bremerton. The lunchtime meal is served every Saturday and is available to anyone who desires a hot meal.

Volunteers from St. Antony's help prepare and serve the food and perform clean up on the second Saturday of every other month. St. Antony's is scheduled to perform these services again on Saturday, May 12, 2018.

There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex at St Antony's for anyone interested in volunteering for this worthy cause. The times for the various functions are stated on the sign-up sheet.

If you feel inclined to volunteer, please sign your name on the sign-up sheet as quickly as possible. If you find you cannot work after having signed the sign-up sheet, please call the Church (698-0555) and have our secretary remove you name. Thank you.

We really need your help!

Janet Steller, Lord's Diner Coordinator
