Vicar's Voice

Exciting things are happening as we see the spire placed on our new church building and the roofers at work. I know we're all looking forward to the consecration service.

In our planning for the consecration, we chose a somewhat unusual text from the Old Testament. Our choice was Exodus 40:1-10, 16, 34-38, the story of the tabernacle that Moses erected in the wilderness.

In this passage, God tells Moses to build a tabernacle as a place for God's presence to dwell among the people. It was essentially a large tent, with poles and rods draped with fabrics and skins. God gave Moses the entire design, including the dimensions, and told Moses how to furnish the tent.

Whenever the Israelites broke camp and traveled in the desert, they would take down the tabernacle and carry it with them. At the next camp, they would erect the tabernacle again and the glory of God's presence would fill the tabernacle. So God was always in their midst.

As we move from our current church building to our new church building, we are like the Israelites, moving the tabernacle as we go. God's presence has been with us in our current site, and God's presence will be with us in our new location.

It reminds us that the church is not a building. Rather, the church happens when God's spirit dwells among the people. This is amplified in the opening verses of the Gospel of John which says, "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us." When Jesus is in our midst, the church appears. Or, as Jesus himself said, "Wherever two or three are gathered in my name, there I will be in the midst of them."

We're delighted that we have a new building. But I hope we'll remember that a building can be an idol as much as a statue can. A building can become a monument to the past, a burden to maintain, and an expensive end in itself. What's important is to remember is the presence of God that travels with us and dwells with us.

Perched above the aumbry behind the altar is our red sanctuary lamp, where a large oil candle perpetually burns. It represents to us the presence of God. When we move, we'll bring our sanctuary lamp with us, and we'll set up our tabernacle again.

*The mission of St. Antony's is to be a loving and welcoming people who worship God, grow in Christ, and serve others.

Outreach

The outreach committee met this month and voted to provide $150.00 dollars to StandUp for Kids and the Kitsap Rescue Mission.

StandUp For Kids assists homeless and at-risk teens ages 12-24 by providing resources and the essentials needed to survive such as food, clothes, hygiene items, school supplies, tents, sleeping bags. They aim to interrupt the cycle of homelessness and advance the Kids to a better future, all the while showing them with action and words that they are not forgotten.

The Kitsap Rescue Mission offers case management, education, clothing, mobile meals and overnight shelter programs for the homeless and needy on the Kitsap peninsula. You can follow KRM on Facebook and help them with their ongoing needs.

Our first in-gathering Sunday collected 370 pounds of food for the CK food bank thank you for the donations the next In-gathering will be June 3rd. Needed items are listed in the outreach binder in the Narthex.

There is a program that we are restoring at St A's called the Copper Crusade. It the tradition to place a penny in the copper dish located in the Narthex for each meal that you eat or each blessing you feel you received. The penny's are collected and used to support missionary work that you as a congregation through your outreach committee decide to support. I hope you will give your pennies

The next Outreach meeting is June 4th at 3:30

Hospitality Committee

Plans are moving right along for our Open House on Saturday, August 4th. Registration forms are being made ready for the month of June for anyone who wants to have their Arts and Crafts Fair table registered (free) for the Open House. Seven of our church members are already planning to have a table for the Fair. The sign-up sheet will be ready for vendors in June, and for all of us to sign up for fun "jobs" during the Open House and Fair.

The Consecration Service is also continuing to be in planning stages for August 22nd at 6:30 pm. This Hospitality Committee is only doing a portion of all that planning. Our music department, worship team, altar guild, floral and other volunteers are putting together a magnificent evening to remember. I am working on the refreshments menus right now, and Emily Nickerson is graciously helping me with the simple décor for the Entry and the coffee room areas.

The team work for this occasion is abundant.

Tovi Andrews, Hospitality Chairperson of the Bishop's Committee

All are Welcome to Sing in the Choir for the Consecration of St. Antony's New Church Building

All youth and adults are invited to sing in the choir for the Consecration of the new church building on Wednesday, August 22. You do not need to be a regular choir member. Simply come to either the 8:30-8:45AM rehearsal or the 10:30-10:45AM rehearsal on the dates that Joann is the scheduled musician. Rehearsals have been scheduled so attendees of both the 7:30 and 9:00 Eucharistic celebrations will have the opportunity to sing in the choir for the consecration. Here are the rehearsal dates: June 3, June 17, July 15, July 29, and August 19. Can't make it to all of the rehearsals? Just come to as many as you can. Hope to see you there!

Joann Richardson, St. Antony Choir Director

Parish Life

Within the last few months, the Pastoral Care Team has had requests for assistance with pets for parishioners who were temporarily unable to care for their animals. The Pastoral Care Team is looking for volunteers able to periodically provide pet care and/or dog walking for parishioners who are sick or injured. Any assistance you can give would be a great help for our church community. Please let us know if you are available to assist with this valuable service. If you are interested, or would like more information, contact Beth Rohlfig.

The Pastoral Care Team continues to be available to support members who could benefit from a care call, visit, meal or transportation. Lay Eucharist Visitors are also available to provide communion to our home-bound parishioners. Contact Father Bill, the church office or Beth Rohlfig with specific requests.

The next Pastoral Care Team meeting will be held Saturday, July 14 at 11am in the church hall. All are welcome.

Beth Rohlfig, Parish Life Commissioner

Transition

Moving Day is approaching and the packing of our properties and goods will commence within the next month.

The transition from New Fellowship building to our new building happens in stages. As a result, it is asked of all the people who chair various organization within our parish to do the following:

- 1) pack materials we do not need to use until we are in the new facility;
- 2) recycle or donate items we are not using now and will not use later;
- 3) discard accumulated minutia which is taking up space; and
- 4) make decisions about storage and handling of materials. (basement of house may be used.)

If you have any items at church which are personal, please take them home. We do not want to pack or discard them and create angst.

The barn is our first moving project. New Fellowship wants to begin modifying it and we need to clean out all the materials within which we possess. Much of these materials can be stored in the basement of the house. I would like to schedule a move it out party for after church on June 10.

We can adapt. So, keep your flexibility intact.

Cute Story

An eye witness account from New York City , on a cold day in December, some years ago: A little boy, about 10-years-old, was standing before a shoe store on the roadway, barefooted, peering through the window, and shivering With cold.

A lady approached the young boy and said, 'My, but you're in such deep thought staring in that window!'

'I was asking God to give me a pair of shoes,' was the boy's reply.

The lady took him by the hand, went into the store, and asked the clerk to get half a dozen pairs of socks for the boy. She then asked if he could give her a basin of water and a towel. He quickly brought them to her.

She took the little fellow to the back part of the store and, removing her gloves, knelt down, washed his little feet, and dried them with the towel.

By this time, the clerk had returned with the socks.. Placing a pair upon the boy's feet, she purchased him a pair of shoes.

She tied up the remaining pairs of socks and gave them to him. She patted him on the head and said, 'No doubt, you will be more comfortable now..'

As she turned to go, the astonished kid caught her by the hand, and looking up into her face, with tears in his eyes, asked her: 'Are you God's wife?'

This Fall, as ministry in our new church building begins, we are invited to take part in a new adventure. For the first time, St. Antony's Church will be an official site for Education for Ministry (EfM).

EfM explores our identity as Christians, our invitation to be a part of God's action in the world, and the personal ministry that evolves for the baptized who promise to seek and serve Christ in all persons and strive for justice and peace among all people, respecting the dignity of every human being. There will be a introductory class held in August for folks to explore what EfM offers. Stay tuned for the date!

If you are a former EfM participant or graduate, please let us know so we can include you as part of our EfM family at St. Antony's. With questions please contact Kathy Little (360-649-8970) , or Cris McCarty (360-434-2411).

A huge thanks to those who participated in the 1st annual paint party at the rental house. There was abundant cheer and enthusiasm at the initial phase then somewhat tempered as we progressed into ceiling and trim work.

The River City Ladies Auxiliary was kind enough to supply a feast not often seen under these circumstances. A program (Grecian Urn) was to be presented by the Ladies Auxiliary however the lip and stem were unavoidably detained elsewhere. Word is that all slept well that night.

David Sorrell

Again, THANK YOU ALL!

St. Clare's Corner

The Little Sisters of Saint Clare were invited to the combined convocation of the Conference of Anglican Religious Orders in the Americas (CAROA) and the National Association of Episcopal Christian Communities (NAECC) held last month in Toronto, Canada.

I was the Sister chosen to represent us. What a joy! The conference was held in the Convent of St. John the Evangelist, a Mother house of the Sisters of St. John the Evangelist (SSJE) and their large ministry of hospitality. We stayed in their conjoined Guest House, where they were able to provide a small private room for each of our 40+ participants. I was in the "Celtic Wing," in a room dedicated to St. David. It was a simple cell with a reading chair and light, a small desk, a twin bed and a wash stand. Perfect! I found the profound peace and intentional quiet of the convent like coming home to a beloved place. Here is the group picture taken on the final day.

During the Conference, many connections were made between the gathered leaders and we learned so much from each other about how to be of service as a member of a religious community in today's world. The Conference workshop topic was "Reclaiming Community and Recovering Presence: Ministry and Formation in an Era Saturated in Smart Technology." What a joy it was to find, as the workshop progressed, that it was presented from the heart as well as the intellect and spoke deeply to each of us in language we understood. A true Pentecost experience! J I brought home much practical advice to share about the use of technology to build relationships and uplift...with the clear intention of counteracting how smart technology is isolating and degrading so many today.

If you would like to chat with me about this, or about the Little Sisters of Saint Clare, please find me after church seated listening to Joann's postlude, or call/text me at 360-649-8970 so we can make a date to get together. There is a copy of the detailed narrative report I wrote about my at the CAROA/NAECC Conference on the table in the Narthex if you are interested.

Pax et bonum! (Peace and All Good)

Sister Kathryn Mary Little/LSSC (aka plain old Kathy)
