Interim Vicar's Voice

Dear Ones,

I'm writing this from Camp Huston where it's just as hot here, so much for the cool mountain air, as it is in Silverdale. I'm having a great time with the kids. I am experiencing a feeling of great hope as I look at the community being built, the friendships being made, and the excitement of these young people.

As we look forward to August, I'm really excited about next weekend with Movie Night and the Parish Picnic. The love of God is limitless, we are called to share it with others; so please invite you friends and neighbors to join us for both of these events as we work together to build the City of God!!

The Profile Committee will be presenting the survey results tomorrow. One of the frequent comments I've heard is about the architect's vision for St. Antony's property and buildings – both the current structures and future buildings. One of the most important things for us to always remember, but especially at this time of transition, is where to hear and how to do we see God working in the life of St. Antony's. The life of a church is no different from our own lives. And as we all know, things change, and we must change with them. As you continue in this process of calling your next vicar, I pray that you will be open to change and to wherever the Holy Spirit will lead St. Antony's.

I look forward to continuing on this journey of transition with you in the coming months. Know of my prayers and love and I ask that you keep me in your prayers.

With blessings,

"The garden is growth and change and that means loss as well as constant treasures to make up for a few disasters." May Sarton

*The mission of St. Antony's is to be a loving and welcoming people who worship God, grow in Christ, and serve others.

Faith Formation - Youth

We are getting the youth education programs up a running after having to take a break due to shutdowns. To do this, we need your help in one of two ways. Helping with our younger children and adolescents/teens. Remember there are many roles to fill and any help you can give would be great!

If you love reading, helping toddlers/young children learn about God's love, and, a structured curriculum. Godly play is for you. If we can get a handful of volunteers, we can rotate Sundays. I do want to send 2 people to godly play classes as there is set curriculum (you do not need to reinvent the wheel). This program is set for Sundays only.

If you want to be mentor and facilitate adolescent/teen spiritual growth, we need you. Unlike Godly play, this program is more flexible to meet the needs of our very active youth. Mentors and youth will determine a schedule that allows maximum participation. Most meetings will probably not be on Sunday. The role of mentor is not only to chaperone events and meetings, but also to bring your life experiences to discussions regarding bible readings, current events troubling our youth, and other spiritual growth moments our budding young adults are having. We may do movie nights, camp outs, retreats, spaghetti nights, or any number of things our youth are interested in. Young adults are strongly recommended to volunteer, but anyone can mentor!

If you are interested in either volunteer positions please email or text Julie Sherwin. Also, contact Julie if you are a young adult so your spiritual needs are met. Her phone number is in the directory.

Childcare Attendant Needed

Our childcare attendant, Candice, has left us and we are in need of a new childcare attendant. If you know of anyone that would be interested in looking after our most precious little ones during the church service and other times as needed, please let Linda Robuck know. This is a paid position. Must be at least 18 to apply.

Picnic

We look forward to Sunday August 7th at 11:00 am when the picnic begins following the combined church service starting at 9:30 am in the Pavilion.

There will be a special cake at our picnic to celebrate that happy time when we opened the church to the public on August 3, 2019 with an Open House and Strawberry Cake Social.

The sign-up sheet is filling up nicely, and there are still openings for you to consider offering your time and talents for this picnic and fun time of fellowship.

Outreach

Many thanks to Janet Steller and Donna Hilton for their continued help to provide meals to those in need at the Salvation Army in Bremerton. Thanks to their efforts, a donation of $1000 from the Brandenburg Fund was approved by the BC to be sent to the Salvation Army.

St. Antony's Outreach funds continue to support the Kitsap Community Resources (KCR) Kinship program, and there is a recent story a KCR case worker shared with us:

A Grandmother has custody of and has been caring for her 2 grandchildren since birth (they are now ages 2 and 4). Other family members have helped ... and she says, "we have always had just what we need & plenty of love to fill in the space some might fill with things". However this year the family suffered a great loss as a key member passed away suddenly. This led to not only heartache, but also unexpected expenses.

The Grandmother asked for only enough to pay the rent, but with y our help (from St. A's) and that of our other departments (at KCR)...we not only paid the rent...but were able to get some back bills taken care of & a reduced fee implemented on the energy bill moving forward. This Grandmother and grandchildren were the recipients of your June Donation to help with all things a safe and happy home need, and will continue to receive ..support until we can see them into self-sufficiency again.

Community Volunteer Opportunity. (Information provided by Elizabeth Flagg)

The Committee has been exploring ways that we might reach out to the community. One of the opportunities that presents itself is to volunteer our time at a local charity such as we've done at the Salvation Army and The Lord's Diner.

We have a charity at work in Silverdale commonly known as The Discovery Shop. The Discovery Shop sells gently used goods and clothing which go to support cancer research and education. The Shop is staffed totally by volunteers who commit to working 1 day a week for 4 hours either at the checkout counter or in the area where goods are received. Volunteers help potential customers providing information, ringing up sales or the area where goods are received. In the latter area, sorting donated items, perhaps laundering them or sewing on a button. The shop will also be putting on special events. For August, they are planning on having a chef make demonstrations and kitchen items will be spotlighted in the shop.

The manager, Joyce Kelly, phone 360-613-4139 says that volunteers are always welcome and is the person to contact for further information. If this is something you end up deciding to do, please let Loretta McGinley, our Outreach Committee Chair or another member of the committee know.

Thank you for considering this opportunity for outreach to our community.

Got talent?? The Outreach team is planning a St. Antony's Talent Show and potluck dinner on 10 September from 4-7 pm. This will be a pass-th-hat fundraiser in support of the Diocesan Refugee Resettlement Office. Here's a unique chance to show us what you've got -sing a song, play a tune, read a poem, juggle, give a 2-5 minute talk about making the best bundt cake - oh, so many possibilities! Please let Loretta McGinley know if you'd like to display your talent and be added to the program. Signups to help with set up, clean up and to bring potluck items will be in the narthex. Sarah Rogers will be our MC for the evening - this will be a night to remember!

Getting to Know You: Charles & Elizabeth Moorhead

Both Charles and Elizabeth have eastern roots: Charles grew up on a farm in northwestern Pennsylvania; Elizabeth was born in Beverly, Massachusetts near Boston. Serendipitous circumstances determined their destinies. Following Elizabeth's family's move, they ended up attending the same high school in Harbor Creek, Pennsylvania though they didn't know each other at that time. A quirk of circumstances brought them together. Home from his first year of college, Charles was visiting his high school wanting to look up a former teacher. School was in a new building and he didn't know the teacher's location, but a pretty young girl in the empty hallway was able to give him requested directions. Two days later they met again at a young people's gathering place, and three years later they married. Last June 1 they celebrated their fifty-ninth anniversary.

"Eight-o'clockers," Charles and Elizabeth were active at Saint Charles in Poulsbo from 1982 until Charles left for Virginia in 1991 to become the Commanding Officer of the Naval Ophthalmic and Training Activity. Elizabeth then began attending St. Antony's for a year until she joined Charles in Yorktown. In 1997 they both became members of Saint Anthony's under Fr. Dick Scott when Charles retired from the Navy and they moved back to Silverdale.

Charles's naval service included eight years as a helicopter pilot and instructor, followed by graduation from optometry school and practice as an optometrist. During much of this time, Elizabeth taught in elementary schools in first and second grades with a three-year stint in sixth grade in Texas. When Charles retired from the Navy after thirty-two years of service, he established private optometry practice in Bremerton while Elizabeth taught in the Central Kitsap School District.

Throughout their time at St. A's they have been active, contributing members. Elizabeth has been on altar guild for many years and continues to serve in that capacity. She was also on Bishop's Committee, the Search Committee that selected Fr. Fulton, and she is a reader and Eucharistic Minister.

Since retiring (Elizabeth in 2009, Charles in 2010), they have spent much time "on the road." Their "trip of a lifetime" was a three-month tour of New Zealand and Australia, carefully planned and orchestrated by Charles who says planning their trips is like a hobby for him. They both eschew tours and imposed itineraries, preferring instead to set their own agenda and means of transportation: trains, planes, car rentals, whatever. In Charles's words, "a little bit of everything." Elizabeth adds that they like to stay in B and B's because they "like to meet the people." Usually they travel somewhere during four months of the year, sometimes overseas but more frequently here at home where they have visited every state in the Union. Despite having covered so much territory, they still have one more wish to fulfill - a trip to Acadia National Park in Maine.

Besides travel, another ongoing interest is genealogy. Elizabeth's American roots go back to the early 1600's in New England with a relative on the second ship after the Mayflower. Charles also has ancestors from early New England and even older from Yorktown, Virginia. He likes to say when Elizabeth's relatives arrived, his were in America to tie up their boat. In their extensive research, in addition to identifying ancestries, they have made two surprising discoveries: the first - they are actually ninth cousins; the second - one of Elizabeth's relatives was hanged as a witch at the Salem witch trials.

What interesting and unique information they are able to pass on to two sons, a daughter, and five grandchildren!
